ATTENTION : Mrs. Ruth Kupinsky

SUBJECT : Transmittal of Suggested Topics for Inclusion in Agenda ECE
Conference of Economists

1. This memorandum [redacted] have been 25X1 prepared in response to a telephone request from Mrs. Kupinsky for suggestions on topics suitable for inclusion in the agenda of the forthcoming "informal" meeting of economists to be held in Geneva in conjunction with the annual Plenary Session of the Economic Commission for Europe in April 1959.

2. The subjects suggested in the attached proposed agenda have been selected with two principal considerations in mind:

a. They are of common interest to economists in both Eastern and Western Europe; and

b. They deal with problems which are of intelligence interest and on which any increased understanding which might come out of the discussions would be directly beneficial to the quality of existing estimates.
